MEMBERSHIP

- 4.1 The subscribers to the Memorandum of the Association of the Union and such other persons as are admitted to membership in accordance with the Articles shall be members of the Union. No person shall be admitted a member of the Union unless he is approved by the Directors. Every person who wishes to become a member shall deliver to the Union an Application for membership in such form, as the Directors require executed by him.
- 4.2 The Directors shall not be entitled to admit to membership of the Union any person unless they are satisfied that he is acting as a Trustee for a Club which supports the objectives of the Union and has a Constitution acceptable to the Directors.

- 4.3 The Directors may admit as joint members two or more persons acting as Trustees for one club, and may also register as a joint member any additional or replacement Trustee for a club whose Trustee has already been admitted to membership, and where two or more persons are acting as Trustees for such a club the expressions 'member' and 'membership' shall be construed accordingly. Save in accordance with the provisions of this article 4.3 the Directors shall not admit to membership more than one person acting as Trustee for any one club.
- 4.4 A member of the Union may withdraw from the Union on giving not less than seven days clear notice to the Union. Withdrawal shall not be effective unless the Directors are satisfied that it has been executed by a person duly authorised to act on behalf of the Club whose trustees have been admitted to membership. Membership shall not be transferable.
- 4.5 The Directors may at any time remove from membership of the Union any person upon the Directors being satisfied that he or the Club which he represents is no longer fit and proper to be a member of the Union, or has ceased to exist. Any member aggrieved by such a decision shall have the right to require the Directors to convene an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Union which may be addressed at reasonable length and at the discretion of the Chairman by the member or by a representative of the Club for which he is acting. Such a meeting shall be held at a time and place fixed by the Directors, acting reasonably, but not later than one year after the date of the expulsion in question. The decision of the Union in general meeting with respect to the expulsion shall be final and binding on all concerned.
- 4.6 The Directors may enroll as Honorary Members of the Union (in the categories of Honorary President, Honorary Vice President and Honorary Life Member) any person who in the opinion of the Directors has given distinguished service to the Sport/Hockey. The Directors shall also have power to enroll as honorary annual or life members those persons who have paid or agreed to pay such life or annual subscription to the Union as the Directors may determine. Individuals enrolled as honorary members in any of the categories specified in this Article shall not by virtue of such enrolment have any liability to pay subscriptions, levies or other sums due to the Union, nor shall they have any right to receive notice of, attend or vote at general meetings of the Union. The Directors shall also have the power, at their unfettered discretion, to remove from the roll of honorary members any person enrolled in any of the categories referred to in this Article, at any time.
